MISSION

FOUNDED IN 1999 in response to ecumenical requests for renewal and training of clergy and lay leadership in urban churches in America.

“...conferences, workshops, retreats and congregational consultations produced by Center for Urban Ministry, Inc. focus on biblical and spiritual inspirationand, on this spiritual anvil is formed the practice of social justice and servant ministry by city congregations of all denominations seeking to make a difference in their respective urban locations....”

Doug Bailey at Trinity Church, Boston

THE REV. DR. DOUGLASS M. BAILEY is President of Center for Urban Ministry, Inc.™ at Wake Forest University Divinity School. Bailey is the former Rector of Calvary Episcopal Church in the downtown City of Memphis and Founder of ten separate 501(c)(3) non-profit urban ministries connected to Calvary Church. Calvary is a Jubilee Center parish renowned for its urban mission and ministry to Memphis and the Mid-South.

With over 25 years experience in urban and justice ministry, Bailey is a consultant for ecumenical congregations and the Divinity School’s Assistant Professor of Urban Ministry where he leads courses like “Jesus and Justice” and “Urban Ministry by Immersion.”

CONFERENCES

For the renewal of Spirit and Vision in doing the critical “call” (vocation) and work of building up the urban Body of Christ and the doing of peace and justice ministry.

CONSULTING

Helping staff, and congregations or non-profit urban ministries to define and discern tools for inspiring mission and servant ministry in the City.

WORKSHOPS

Helping congregations and urban ministries to discern God’s call to ministry in the City, developing resources for balancing the pastoral and prophetic ministry, and proposing together an innovative response to the realities of your unique urban center and urban congregations.
