This salt
in the salt cellar
I once saw in the salt mines.
I know
you won't believe me
but it sings
salt sings...

In its caves
the salt moans, mountain of buried light,
translucent cathedral,
crystal of the sea, oblivion
of the waves...

...the smallest,
miniature
wave from the saltcellar
reveals to us
more than domestic whiteness;
in it, we taste finitude.

by Pablo Neruda

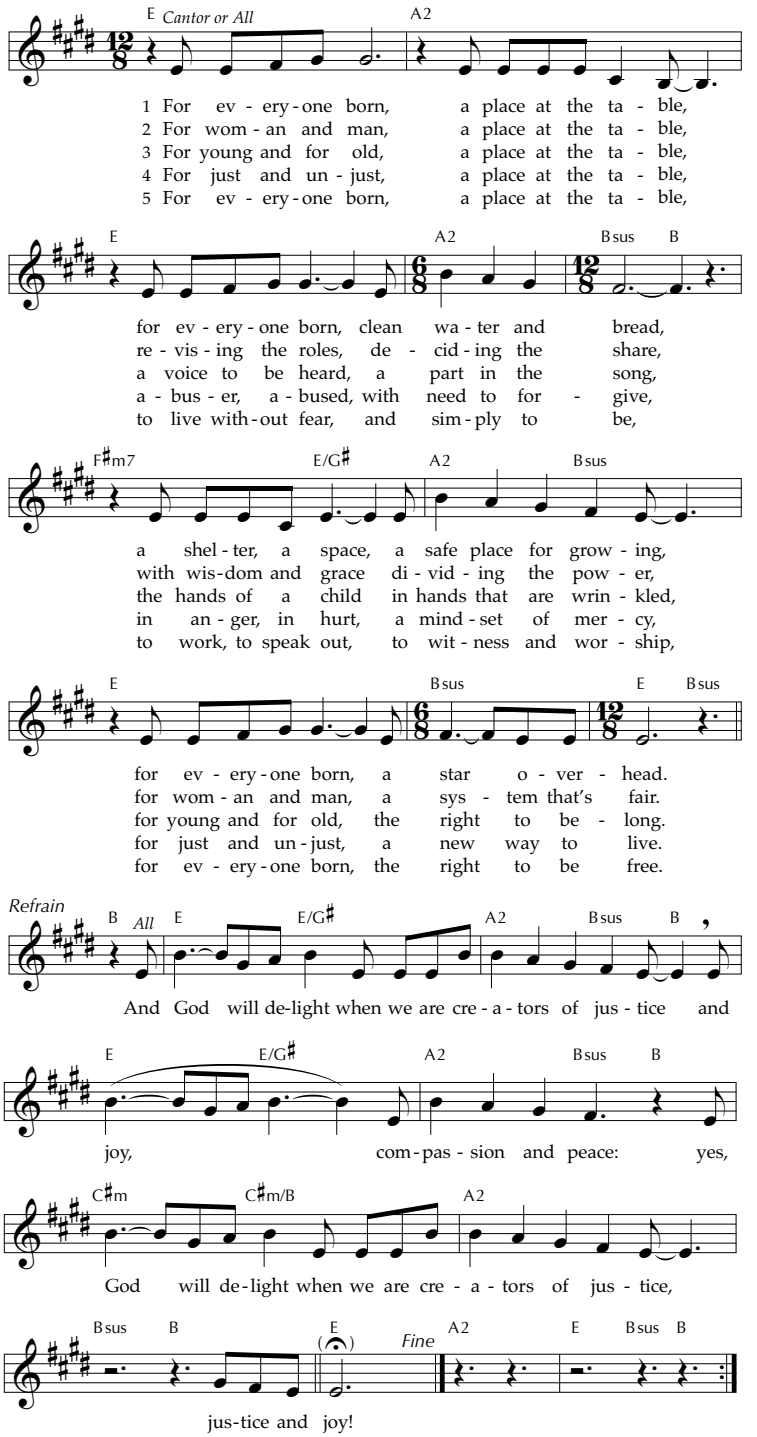
38 For Everyone Born



This hymn from a noted New Zealand hymnwriter affirms that God's hospitality transcends the barriers erected by human society and that we who have been created in God's image are called to live in ways that reflect our Creator's values: justice and joy, compassion and peace.
