Benediction

Rachel Revelle (MDiv. '16)

God speaks to each of us as we are made,
then walks with us silently out of the night.

These are the words we dimly hear:

You, sent out beyond your recall,
go to the limits of your longing.
Embody me.

Flare up like a flame
and make big shadows I can move in.

Let everything happen to you: beauty and terror.
Just keep going. No feeling is final.
Don't let yourself lose me.

Nearby is the country they call life.
You will know it by its seriousness.

Give me your hand.

- Rainer Marie Rilke

Notes for Today's Worship

---

About the Worship Leader

Rachel Revelle is a third-year student originally from Murfreesboro, North Carolina. She is committed to working for the healing and wholeness of all people and our earthly home. After the May celebrations of graduation, ordination at Knollwood Baptist Church, and her favorite east coast music festival DelFest, she will be moving to Denver to pursue a residency in Clinical Pastoral Education at University of Colorado Hospital.

Worship

Today's worship service was planned by Brian Hollingsworth (M.Div. '17) and Emily Hedrick (M.Div. '16).

Responsive Prayer was written by Emily Hedrick (M.Div. '16)

The bulletin was designed by Christine Hargraves (M.Div. '16).

The "Call to Listen" is from Rainer Maria Rilke's Book of Hours: Love Poems to God (I, 59)

Cover Art: "Incarnation" by Stacy Wills

Communion will be celebrated by intinction today. You will be given or you may receive bread and may choose to dip it in the wine or grape juice.

Bread is Gluten Free and baked by Marisa Fraley (M.Div. '17).

Wine and grape juice are present in both chalices. Wine is in the lesser-filled side of the chalice and is inscribed with a "W". Grape juice is in the greater-filled side of the chalice and is inscribed with a "J."
