Citing biblical texts:

When referring to a biblical text in a sentence, write out the full name of the book, then use numbers to show chapter and verse...

   “In Matthew 5:1-11, Jesus begins by focusing on…”

Not: “In Matthew chapter five verses one through eleven…”

Not: “In Matt. 5…”

When quoting or paraphrasing a biblical text, give the proper reference in parentheses following the sentence. Use standard abbreviations and numbers...

   “The opening verses of John echo another beginning: “In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth…” (Gen. 1:1).

If your sentence already clearly indicates what book of the Bible you are discussing, then the parenthetical reference should provide whatever information is missing in the sentence...

   “The rhetorical high point of 1 Corinthians is the hymn to love (ch. 13).”

The period always goes after the parenthetical reference at the end of the sentence.
