Pentecostal Charismatic Student Organization
Today’s worship was planned by members of the Pentecostal Charismatic Student Organization (PCSO), a gathering of Pentecostal/Charismatic students at Wake Forest University School of Divinity as well as any student interested in the study and/or practice of Pentecostalism. The PCSO provides a scholarly and sacred space for the exploration of socio-cultural identity expressions, theological formation, and spiritual direction among Pentecostal/Charismatic Christians, combining historical-critical and interdisciplinary religious studies with active participation in faith communities. Any and all students are welcome to engage with any of PCSO’s activities.
Notes for Today’s Worship

About the Worship Leader
Archbishop Alfred A. Owens, Jr. is a native Washingtonian and a product of the D.C. Public School System. He received a Master of Arts degree in English from Howard University, and he also received his Master of Divinity degree and Doctoral of Ministry Degree from their School of Divinity. He is the Senior Pastor of Greater Mt. Calvary Holy Church and the Presiding Prelate of the Mt. Calvary Holy Church of America, Inc. Bishop Owens has served as the Dean of the Joint College of African-American Pentecostal Bishops since the year 2000, Bishop Owens, on August 20, 2009, was also elevated to the esteemed position of Archbishop of the Joint College.

Worship
The altar design was created by Demi McCoy (MDiv ‘17).

The bulletin cover is an expression of the pentecostal faith that God will pour out the spirit of the Divine upon all flesh.

Communion
Communion today is served using trays of gluten free wafers and cups of juice.
