Special St. Valentine's Day Issue

Angela,
I can't thank you enough for your love and support. You've made the last 3 years possible, and as we look toward life after Div School know that what you want matters a lot. I LOVE YOU! Thank you for being you. You are truly a blessing from God.

~Jason

To my HBF:
You are the wind beneath my wings & the reason I wake up to come to small group... even if you do not. You slay me.

To Brian:
Thanks for your love and support, open ears and great cooking! I love you.

From Beth

Akoni,
We have grown as individuals and as a group through these halls of wisdom. It has certainly been an experience. I love working with all of you as we discover our gifts and talents and truly learn that we can do more together than what we could do separately. We are making our ancestors proud.
With Grace, Peace & Love,
Beryl

To "out on a limb" hangers, divinity 'tree'huggers and priceless professors: Love to you! You are remembered with a happy heart of thankfulness. "I thank God for every time I remember you . . . I have you in my heart." May your "love abound more and more in the knowledge and depth of insight." I pray you are "filled!" (Phil. 1: 9-11)
With A Valentine prayer hug,
Jenny Cox

To SEH:
"Yub yub!" (I love you!)

To those without a Valentine,
Don't worry; be happy and celebrate tomorrow,
when all the Valentine candy will be cheap and ease your sorrow!

To Gretchen:
Love is patient, love is kind...will you be my Valentine?
Oh, and I like dark chocolates the best.

Love, David

"Beloved"
One word...I twitterpated.
